5. Why they did it, if you know.

Around September 1998, I began working for the City of Racine Police Department. My most recent position was sergeant on second shift. Since around November 2016, I had been placed on administrative leave.
In January 2019, I became aware that another officer outside of my protected class was accused of the same misconduct and was not placed on administrative leave.

I believe I was discriminated against on the basis of my race (African American), in that I was disciplined, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.
